

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Described is a susceptor with a wafer pocket, to contain a wafer during a wafer processing procedure, and a plurality of raised tabs along the outer perimeter of the wafer pocket that are configured to maintain the wafer in the wafer pocket during wafer processing. The tabs have a tab height that is independent of the pocket depth.